Conditions of Membership in the Multicultural Business Support Centre:

Disclaimer: I agree to be governed by the Articles of the membership rules, the bylaws and conduct of the Business membership. I can envisage many benefits associated with membership through the association with one another on a business level and common business interest basis. I recognize that I am not buying advertising space by joining the Business membership and that I can only expect to derive a maximum value from my membership if I make every effort to communicate with my business challenges and opportunities regularly and agree to share common business information to communicate with MBSC and take an active interest in the affairs of our business advocacy group and network with local, state and federal government, NGOs and Business affiliates. I agree that due to the confidential nature associated with the exchange of information, business affairs and services offered to members are exclusive to MBSC; and therefore, membership business issues and challenges will lead to better advocacy and positive PR for all members. This application is to be accompanied with membership fee amount of $50.00/month or $500.00/year as established by the MBSC. I hereby authorise any credit inquiry that the directors of the MBSC may require as part of my application for membership.
